

Climate Change – Global Change Impacts, Adaptation and Mitigation

University of Hohenheim, Germany, 5–6 November 2009

Venue: Universität Hohenheim/Schloss Aula

Scientific Student Conference

Thursday, 5 November 2009

- 09:00 Welcome and opening
- 09:10 Climate Change – observed impacts, unavoidable adaptation and necessary mitigation
Prof. Hartmut Graßl,
Max-Planck-Institute for Meteorology Hamburg
- 10:00 Session 1: Environmental modelling
- 11:50 Session 2: Impacts on agriculture, food security and food quality
- 14:00 Session 3: Impacts on biodiversity and ecosystem functioning
- 16:30 Session 4: Bioenergy and biofuels
- 20:00 Euroleague students party at Thomas-Müntzer-Scheuer

Friday, 6 November 2009

- 08:30 Session 5: Climate change, economy and society
- 10:00 Workshop on student mobility
„Looking beyond your own backyard –
Benefits of a study abroad period“
- 11:30 Discussion with Rectors of the ELLS universities
How do life science universities meet the challenges of a changing world? – Student mobility and possibilities for taking up hot new subjects at your university
- 12:30 Award ceremony
ELLS Prize for Excellent MSc Theses
ELLS Distinguished Fellowship

Detailed programme at www.euroleague-study.org/en/SSC

Members of the Euroleague for Life Sciences

Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences || LIFE, University of Copenhagen || University of Natural Resources and Applied Life Sciences, Vienna ||
University of Hohenheim || Czech University of Life Sciences Prague || Warsaw University of Life Sciences || Wageningen University and Research Centre